

Morning Prayer - Pentecost & Trinity 2026

Welcome and Introduction

Post-Pentecost and Trinity Season

Whatever you are carrying into this day, you are welcome here.

We gather in the quiet at the beginning of the morning.

The night has passed, and the day lies open before us.

We worship the God who creates, redeems, and sustains all things.

(Silence is kept.)

Christ with me, Christ before me,
Christ behind me, Christ in me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me.

Pentecost Week	Trinity Week
I rise today in the grace of God: the breath moving over the waters, the voice carried on the wind, and the fire that kindles the heart.	I rise today in the grace of God: the voice that spoke light into the dark, the Word made flesh who walked among us, and the presence that holds us together.

The Psalm

We pray with the words of the psalmist.

(A psalm is read.)

The Reading

(A Gospel passage is read.)

(Silence is kept.)

A Reflection

(A brief reflection is offered.)

The Morning Prayer

Prayers of Intercession

Loving God,
you know the weight of this world:
the places of pain and conflict,
the suffering we hear about,
and the suffering we do not.

Faithful God,
meet them there.

Guide those who lead and decide:
in our communities, our province, our nation,
and among the nations of the earth.
Give wisdom, courage, and compassion,
that justice and mercy may grow.

Faithful God,
meet them there.

Draw near to those on our hearts today:
those who are ill, frightened, or grieving,
and those who struggle in ways we may not fully see.
We name them now, aloud or in silence.

Faithful God,
meet them there.

Hold us in your mercy this morning:
what we carry into this day,
what we hope for, worry about,
or do not know how to face.

Faithful God,
meet us here.

The Lord's Prayer

We pray in the words Jesus taught us, each in the language and version closest to our hearts.

Abba, God in heaven, holy is your name, may your kingdom come, may your will be done, here on earth as it is in heaven. Give us what we need for today. Forgive us as we forgive others. Save us from times of trial, and deliver us from all evil. For all authority and power and glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Pentecost Week God of wind and fire, you do not leave us drifting. Breathe your peace into our lives this morning, and kindle courage where we are hesitant. Send us into this day trusting that you are already at work in us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.	Trinity Week God of all beginning and end, you draw us into the life you share. Keep us steady in the knowledge that we are held by you, and give us grace to bear that love into the lives we meet; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

May the breath of the Creator wake you to the morning light,
May the steps of the Redeemer guide you through the day,
And may the fire of the Sustainer keep your heart in the evening stillness;
And the blessing of God, Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, be with you and remain with you always. Amen.

The Dismissal

The day lies before us.
Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
